

The Names of God

Elohim – When used in the plural singular – God

אֱלֹהִים 'ĕlôhîym, el-o-heem'; plural of H433; gods in the ordinary sense; but specifically used (in the plural thus, especially with the article) of the supreme God; (Strongs)

It is interesting to note the usage of the word El and also Yah (See Below)

Adonai – Means Lord, Master. This is the verbal parallel to Yahweh and Jehovah. When used in reference to God the plural form Adonai is used. (The singular form is adon.) The New Testament equivalent is the Greek word Kurios. In the New Testament, when referring to God, Kurios (κύριος) is undoubtedly a title applied to Jesus Christ. Example – “Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord [kurios κύριος] Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?” Acts 11:17; “To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord [kurios κύριος] Jesus Christ.” Romans 1:7

אֲדֹנָי 'Ādônây, ad-o-noy'; an emphatic form of H113; the Lord (used as a proper name of God only): —(my) Lord. (Strongs)

Jehovah (YHWH – Yehweh – Sounding out the Jewish letters -Yud – Hay- Vav – Hay) - also called the Tetragrammaton (four letters) – The meaning is Unchanging, Self-existent One

יְהוָה yehôvâh ,yeh-ho-vaw' From H1961; (the) self Existent or eternal; Jehovah, Jewish national name of God: - Jehovah, the Lord. (Strongs)
